

Emergency Response Courses

Can't Intubate Can't Oxygenate

This practical course is designed for Anaesthetists, GP Anaesthetists, GP and ANZCA trainees, Emergency Medicine Specialists, ACEM Trainees and those working in retrieval medicine. Participants will learn the skills & steps required to manage a CICO crisis utilising fresh pig cadavers for surgical airway practice.

WHERE

Royal Flying Doctor Service Simulation Centre
Judy Jakins Drive (off Cooreena Rd), Dubbo Regional Airport

2022 Dates

- Saturday 30/07/2022 09:00 to 18:30

COST

Consultant and GP: $990 (GST inclusive)

Registrar: $470 (GST Inclusive)

inc. refreshments and learning materials

ACRRM and RACGP (category one) QI & CPD Points will be offered.

Course highlights

- Simulation and skills workshop based course
- Includes anaesthesia, emergency and retrieval scenarios
- Review of current CICO guidelines
- Practice decision making points for CICO algorithms
- Focus on communication skills and team based approach
- Perform surgical cricothyrotomy in a wide variety of situations
- High participant to instructor ratio and simulator availability. You will actively participate in ALL high fidelity scenarios.
- Fresh pig cadavers for surgical airway learning

Participants in the ANZCA and FPM CPD program may claim this course as a CICO emergency response activity, or as knowledge and skills activity short format learning (2 credits per hour) in their CPD portfolio.

This course provides 9.5 hours of ANZCA CPD. Participants in the ACEM CPD Program can claim 6.5 ACEM CPD hours.

General Enquiries and Registration

Debbie Ervine
Health Service Coordinator, RFDS South Eastern Section
Ph: 02 6841 2560 (Mon-Thur 0830-1700)
Email: Debbie.Ervine@rfdssse.org.au